Vocation Corner: Second Sunday of Easter

A Vocation View: It is only through people like you that others will be able to say: "We have seen the Lord." With the resurrection to empower you and with Jesus to lure you, you too can inspire others who have not seen to believe.

Prayer: For all our priests, deacons, sisters and brothers whom God has sent in the name of Jesus to serve the people of our diocese, that they will be blessed with continued faithfulness to Him and inspire many more to consider a vocation to consecrated life and ordained ministry, we pray to the Lord.

Action: THE LOVING ENVIRONMENT of a family draws forth an individual's greatest talents and gifts. We've come to realize that creating an atmosphere in which children can hear the Lord's call is one of the most significant responsibilities resting on our shoulders as parents. Our own lives must reflect the presence of God, His Word, and the love He offers His people.

SOUL MUSIC ENCORE! A RETREAT TO RECLAIM YOUR CREATIVE POWER THROUGH MUSIC

Saturday May 6, 10:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m. In Soul Music Encore we will dive into the creative act of responding to and making music with our heart, mind, spirit, voices and body. Using tools such as breathwork, vocalization, and learning how to harness our memory, we can begin the process of reclaiming our creative capacity regardless of what we do for a living, where we are on our spiritual path, and how we got there. And of course, as part of this one-day journey, we will sing – together, and a lot! This retreat is open to all; participation in past Soul Music: Music for Every Soul retreats or experience with reading or making music of any kind is NOT required. Fee: $75 - includes lunch. Group discounts available - call 306-242-1916x226 to learn more. A retreat offered at Queen's House, welcoming a maximum of 25 participants. Retreat facilitator: Stephanie Tillman. Registration deadline: May 4.
