Vocation Corner ~ Epiphany of the Lord

A Vocation View: More valuable than material gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh, is the invaluable gift of our lives. There is no greater gift than to lay down one's life for one's friends.

Prayer: For an increased understanding among our young people that they would know they are uniquely chosen by God to be holy through their specific vocation to their state in life in Christ, we pray to the Lord

Action: CHRIST SPOKE of the talents each one of us has, talents which must not be buried. Our calling is to take those talents, develop them fully, and then use them in establishing His kingdom on earth.

Are you using your talents to fulfill your vocation to service? Take some time today to reflect on how you might use your special talents in the service of the Kingdom.

Ana Gheysen is a spiritually-integrated psychotherapist focused on grief and bereavement, end-of-life doula, and a spiritual care practitioner at the Hospice at Glengarda in Saskatoon, SK.

Ana's experience in religious communities and among spiritual seekers has given her a wide lens for appreciating the spiritual life as it manifests in all places and among all people.

As a former ESL teacher, yoga instructor and meditation guide, she is a skilled facilitator who can provide a compassionate, warm space for treading difficult terrain. She is adept at leading small groups through learning, opening the floor for discussion and then supporting each person as they integrate what they have learned.

REDISCOVERING THE ART OF DYING: How Jesus' Experience and Our Stories Reveal a New Vision of Compassionate Care. Join seekers from across the country for a six-session series offered bi-weekly on zoom as we begin a new year and journey through the season of Lent. Ana Gheysen will be your guide through the incredibly moving book by Nuala Kenny, Rediscovering the Art of Dying: How Jesus' Experience and Our Stories Reveal a New Vision of Compassionate Care. We will journey together with Jesus from the Garden of Gethsemane to the Resurrection through presentations, small group discussions and time for individual journaling and personal reflection. Death and dying are difficult topics to face. This series provides a sacred container for us so that this process feels a little more doable. As we work through the book, we will confront our own mortality, our ideas about the meaning of suffering, fears about what the end of life is like, questions about hospice and palliative care, and the role of ritual after death. Six Tuesday evenings, January 24 - April 4, 7:00 - 8:30 p.m. Offered bi-weekly on zoom. Fee: $125. Registration deadline: January 18.
